LIBRARY INTRODUCES MUSICAL FLOWERS WITH GARDEN PARTY

COVINGTON, LA – The Covington branch (310 W 21st Ave., Covington, LA) of the St. Tammany Parish Library will host a Garden Party to showcase the installation of musical instrument flowers for patrons and visitors. The party will be held on March 3 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

At the party, guests will get a first look at the new interactive musical flowers, visit informational tables, make crafts, enjoy photo opportunities, partake of refreshments, and a walk and read-along with a StoryWalk®.

The premise behind the garden is to provide children and families with a stimulating outdoor outlet for creative and emotional expression. Studies show that music helps to improve concentration and increase mobility and coordination. The outdoor instruments are tuned to the pentatonic scale and make playing effortless as the notes within the scale are all harmonized with one another.

The musical flowers at the Covington branch were generously donated by the St. Tammany Library Foundation and the Friends of the Library of West St. Tammany.
